Bestmed Medical Scheme 2025

Dear Aon Client

At Aon, we shape decisions for the better – to protect and enrich the lives of people around the world. We have pleasure in sharing the Aon on-line microsite platform for Bestmed Medical Scheme, which has been developed to provide you with essential information to make better decisions regarding your medical scheme and gap cover requirements.

It is important that at this time of the year you evaluate your current healthcare arrangements to ensure the most appropriate cover for 2025. Whether you wish to remain on your current option or change to a more suitable option for 2025, it remains Aon’s responsibility to guide you through the review process. This will ensure that you make an informed decision regarding your healthcare cover for 2025.

The information provided in this letter is a summary of changes within the Bestmed options. For more detailed information and clarity on your benefits and contributions, please refer to the Aon Microsite. Please find link on page 5.

Benefits and Contributions Update for 2025

What is the contribution increase for 2025?

Bestmed Medical Scheme has announced a weighted average contribution increase of 12.75% effective 1 January 2025.

Benefit Limit Increases

- The weighted average benefit limit and sub-limit increase is 4.6%.

Key Benefit changes

- Specialised diagnostic imaging (MRI scans, CT scans, nuclear/isotope studies and PET scans). Limited to a combined in- and out-of- hospital rand value per family and subject to a co-payment per scan, not applicable to PMBs. PET scans are noted separately.
- An Orthopaedic and medical appliances benefit is added to Beat and Pace range and is limited to R15 000 per family per annum.
- Procedure specific co-payments will apply to Beat and Rhythm options.
- Take-home medicine – this benefit will continue to cover a maximum of 7 days' treatment; however, it will need to be claimed as part of the hospital account. If not claimed as part of the hospital account, a rand value will be imposed if claimed on the same day of discharge at a retail pharmacy or no payment if not claimed on day of discharge.
- Benefits added to Rhythm1
 - Mammogram benefit for females aged 40 and above every 24 months,
 - Pap smear (pathology only) benefit for females aged 18 and above every 24 months,
 - Over-the-counter medicine (OTC) benefit limited to R240 per family per annum and R120 per event.

Benefit Reductions

- Female contraceptive benefit was adjusted for all options.
- Child dependant age - Dependants under the age of 24 years are regarded as child dependants. Students up to the age of 26 years will no longer be considered at child dependant rates.
- The Hearing aid benefit was adjusted on Pace2, 3 and 4.
- On Rhythm2 the Over-the-counter medicine (OTC) benefit is reduced to R350 per family per annum and R120 per event.
