ACT YOUR AGE: LIVE CAREFREE WITH FEDHEALTH'S flexiFED^{Elect} AND flexiFED^{Savvy} OPTIONS.

Medical aid is a must-have, even when you're still young and healthy - but it shouldn't break the bank while you're busy climbing the ladder. That's why Fedhealth's flexiFED^{Elect} and flexiFED^{Savvy} options are perfect for Under 35s who want world-class cover when needed most, without paying for over-the-top benefits and add-ons you don't need.

With both these Fedhealth variants, you pay a substantially lower monthly contribution when compared to similar options in the market. In turn, you may be liable for a co-payment (R14 700 on flexiFED^{Elect} and R8 600 on flexiFED^{Savvy}) for the non-use of network hospitals during planned procedures.

At this stage of your life, your chances of needing a planned procedure such as a hip or knee replacement are substantially lower, so saving more on your monthly contribution without compromising on other benefits makes perfect sense.

Enjoy protection with Sanlam Gap Fedhealth NexGen Cover.

Sanlam Gap Fedhealth NexGen Cover was exclusively created to complement flexiFED^{Elect} and flexiFED^{Savvy} at the lowest possible price point.

From just R64.90 per month for individual members 	and R109.00 per month for families

Important:

This policy has been designed especially for Fedhealth's flexiFED^{Elect} and flexiFED^{Savvy} medical aid plans. Should you move to another Fedhealth option, or another medical scheme altogether, please contact your broker to replace it with another Gap policy.

Please note that this policy has certain terms, conditions and exclusions which may differ from the terms, conditions and exclusions of Fedhealth's flexiFED^{Elect} and flexiFED^{Savvy} medical aid plans. As such, should Fedhealth approve a claim, it is not a given that the benefits of this policy will correspond, and each claim will be assessed in terms of this policy's terms, conditions and exclusions.
